GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

MINISTRY OF COMMERCE

New Delhi, the 30th July, 1966

ORDER

S.O. — In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955), the Central Government hereby directs —

(a) that the powers conferred on it by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the said Act to make orders to provide for the matters specified in clause (c) of sub-section (2) thereof shall, in relation to all commodities other than foodstuffs and fertilisers (whether inorganic, organic or mixed), be exercisable also by a State Government or, in relation to a Union Territory, by the Administrator thereof, subject to the following conditions, namely: —

(i) that where the price at which any essential commodity may be bought or sold is controlled by or under any other law for the time being in force, no order shall be made in pursuance of the powers hereby delegated;

(ii) that where the price is not so controlled, no order shall be made in pursuance of the powers hereby delegated in respect of any essential commodity, —

(a) if the wholesale prices, or retail prices, or both, of such commodity have been fixed by the manufacturers or producers thereof with the approval of the Central Government, except on the basis of such prices;

(b) in any other case, except with the prior concurrence of the Central Government;

(iii) that no order shall be issued in pursuance of the powers hereby delegated if it is inconsistent with any order issued by the Central Government under the said Act.

(b) that all previous orders issued under section 5 of the Essential Commodities Act in so far as they relate to delegation of powers under the provisions of section 3(1) and (2) (c) referred to in clause (a) above, except orders under the said section 5 relating to fertilisers and the order (relating to foodstuffs) of the Government of India in the Ministry of Food, Agriculture, Community Development and Cooperation (Department of Food) No. GSR 906 dated the 9th June, 1966, shall stand rescinded:

Provided that notwithstanding such rescission, any order (hereinafter referred to as the said Order) made by a State Government or administrator in pursuance of the orders so rescinded and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order shall be deemed to have been made in pursuance of this Order and under the relevant provisions of section 3 of the said Act and shall continue in force according to its tenor, and accordingly any action taken or thing done (including any appointment made, licence or permit granted or directions issued) under the said order and in force immediately before such commencement shall continue in force according to its tenor until and unless it is superseded by any action taken or anything done under any other order made in pursuance of this Order and under the relevant provisions of section 3 of the said Act.

Notification

In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, read with the Government of India, Ministry of External Affairs letter no. F.7(11)/62-Goa dated the 25th July 1963, the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu is pleased to make the following rules relating to the recruitment to the Non-gazetted, non-ministerial posts in the Development and Panchayats Departments under the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu.

1. Short title.—These rules may be called Goa Government Departments of Development and Panchayats (Non-gazetted, non-ministerial posts') Recruitment Rules, 1966.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts specified in column 1 of the Schedule to these rules.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay.—The number of posts, classification of the said posts and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment to the said posts, age limit, qualifications and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the aforesaid Schedule.

Provided that,

- (a) the maximum age limit specified in the Schedule in respect of direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories in accordance with the orders issued by the Government from time to time; and
- (b) no male candidate, who has more than one wife living and no female candidate, who has married a person having already a wife living, shall be eligible for appointment, unless the Government, after having been satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempts any such candidate from the operation of this rule.

5. These rules will come into effect from the date of the Notification and will relate to appointments to the various posts made on or after this date. An appointment made prior to this date through a duly constituted Staff Selection Board/Departmental Promotion Committee will be deemed to be a regular appointment, notwithstanding any provisions contained in these rules, and the probation period in that case will extend to six months only from the date of this notification.

Bombay Home Guards Act, 1947

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 of the Bombay Home Guards Act, 1947 (Bom. III of 1947) as extended to the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, the Lieutenant Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu is pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title. — These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Home Guards Rules, 1966.

1A. They extend to the whole of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

2. Definition. — In these rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context;—

(1) «Act» means the Bombay Home Guards Act, 1947;

(2) «Commandant» means a Commandant of Home Guards appointed under section 2;

(3) «Commandant General» means the Commandant General appointed under section 2;

(4) «form» means a form appended to these rules;

(5) «Home Guards» means the Home Guards constituted under section 2;

(6) «member of Home Guards» means a member appointed under section 3;

(7) «section» means a section of the Act.

(8) «Union Territory» means the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

3. Appointment of member of Home Guards. — (1) No person shall be appointed as a member of the Home Guards —

(a) unless he has attained the age of 20 years and has not completed the age of 50 years;

(b) unless he has passed at least the fourth standard examination in any language;

(c) unless he has been medically examined in accordance with the directions of the Commandant General and is in the opinion of the Commandant physically fit:

Provided that the Commandant General may relax the conditions regarding the age or educational qualifications prescribed in clauses (a) and (b) above in suitable cases:

Provided further that the Lieutenant Governor may direct that in respect of any area the educational qualification for appointment as a member of Home Guards shall be such as it deems fit.

4. Application for appointment. — A person desiring to be appointed a member of the Home Guards shall make an application in Form A.

5. Home Guards Advisory Committee. — (1) The Lieutenant Governor may appoint for the whole Union Territory a Central Advisory Committee and for each of the areas for which Home Guards have been constituted under section 2, a District Advisory Committee;

(2) The Central Advisory Committee and the District Advisory Committee shall consist of such number of members as may be nominated by the Lieutenant Governor.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Central Advisory Committee and the District Advisory Committee to review from time to time the working of the Home Guards Organisation and to suggest to the Commandant General ways and means for its efficient functioning. The functions of the Committees shall be a purely advisory nature and only matters of general nature shall be referred to the Committees, by the Commandant General.

6. Pledge. — Every person, before his appointment as a member shall sign a pledge in Form B before the Commandant or an officer authorised by him for the purpose.

7. Certificate. — Every person appointed as a member of the Home Guards shall receive a certificate of appointment in Form C.

8. Term of office. — The term of office of a member of the Home Guards shall be 3 years:

Provided that if any such member is found to be medically unfit to continue as a member of Home Guards his appointment may be terminated before the expiry of the term of office:

Provided further that a person appointed shall be eligible for reappointment:

Provided also that the services of a member of the Home Guards may be terminated at any time by the Commandant or the Commandant General, as the case may be, after giving month's notice.

9. Limit of age for a member of the Home Guards. — A member of the Home Guards may continue to be such member until he attains the age of 55 years:

Provided that the Commandant General may relax the age limit in suitable cases.

9A. Conditions subject to which power of discharge may be exercised. — No member of the Home Guards shall be discharged under sub-section (1-A) of section 6-B unless the Commandant or the Commandant General, as the case may be, is satisfied that such member has committed an act detrimental to the good order, welfare or discipline of the Home Guards Organization.

10. Resignation. — A member of the Home Guards may resign his office by an application in writing addressed to the Commandant.

Provided that such resignation shall not take effect unless the Commandant General or the Commandant accepts the same after being satisfied that there are good and sufficient reasons for the same.

11. Organisation. — In addition to the Commandant General, the Home Guards constituted for each area shall consist of a Commandant, a Second-in-Command and an Adjutant, Senior Divisional Commanders, such staff officers as the Commandant may consider necessary, Divisional Commanders, Company Commanders, Senior Platoon Commanders, Platoon Commanders, Sergeant Majors, Quarter Master Sergeants, Platoon Sergeants, Section Leaders, Assistant Section Leaders and Sections consisting of twelve Home Guards. Three sections shall form a Platoon, three Platoons a Company and three Companies a Division.

12. Powers of the Commandant-General and Commandants.—(1) The Commandant-General shall exercise general supervision and control over the working of all Commandants in the Union Territory and co-ordinate the work of the Home Guards all over the Union Territory. He shall be directly responsible to the Government of the Union Territory for efficient working, discipline, administration and training of the organisation.

(2) Subject to the supervision and control of the Commandant General, each Commandant shall exercise supervision and control over the working of the Home Guards under his command. He shall be responsible to the Commandant General and the Government of the Union Territory for the efficient working, discipline, administration and training of the Home Guards under his Command.

(3) Subject to the supervision and control of the Commandant General and the Commandant, any officer of the Home Guards authorised by the Commandant in this behalf may exercise the powers conferred by section 4 on the Commandant in such circumstances as the Commandant may specify.

13. Discipline.—(1) A member of the Home Guards shall obey every order of his superior officer.

(2) For the purpose of administration and discipline the members of the Home Guards shall be under the control of their own officers:

Provided that if a contingent of Home Guards is acting in conjunction with the ordinary Police Force, the Senior Officer of such contingent present shall be under the immediate control and subject to the directions of the senior officer of such Police Force present not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector.

14. Uniforms, accoutrements, etc.—A member of the Home Guards shall, while on duty, wear the uniform supplied to him. He may also carry a rifle or a revolver or any other weapon, sanctioned by the Government of the Union Territory from time to time.

15. Training.—The members of the Home Guards shall undergo such course of training as may be determined in writing by the Commandant General from time to time and at such places may be fixed by the Commandant from time to time.

16. Functions and duties.—(1) The functions and duties of members of the Home Guards shall ordinarily consist of—

(a) guarding public buildings;

(b) patrolling for the purpose of the prevention of crime, and the enforcement of such regulations and orders made under the India Police Act 1861 (Act no. 5 of 1861) or any other law for the time being in force as it would be the duty of a Police Officer to enforce under the said Act or law;

(c) performing such other duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu or the Commandant General.

(2) A member of the Home Guards constituted for any area shall be liable to serve in any other area in which the Act is in force.

17. Remuneration.—Officers and other members of the Home Guards shall be entitled to receive such allowances and at such rates as the State Government may from time to time determine.

18. Compensation.—If a member of the Home Guards suffers any damage to his person or property while under training or on duty, he shall be paid such compensation as may be determined by the Government of the Union Territory provided that such damage is not caused by his own negligence or wilful act or omission in contravention of any of the provisions of the Act or rules made thereunder or orders or directions issued by his superior officer.

19. Motorised unit.—A motorised unit of the Home Guards may be formed with members owning motor vehicles who desire to place their vehicles at the disposal of the Commandant General or the Commandant, as the case may be, when called out under section 4 of the Act. Only those member-owners who hold a driving licence and whose motor vehicles conform to the required specifications shall be enrolled in this unit. The Government of the Union Territory shall bear the cost of petrol for the use of such motor vehicles.

The Government of the Union Territory shall also bear the difference between the riot and ordinary insurance in respect of such vehicles in cases in which the member owners have taken out riot insurance policies in respect of such vehicles.

FORM A

(See rule 4)

MINISTRY OF LAW

(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 12th July, 1966/

Asadha 21, 1888 (Saka)

The Essential Commodities (Amendment) Ordinance, 1966

(No. 9 of 1966)

Promulgated by the President in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance further to amend the Essential Commodities Act, 1955.

Whereas Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement. — (1) This Ordinance may be called the Essential Commodities (Amendment) Ordinance, 1966.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Act 10 of 1955 to be temporarily amended. — During the period of operation of this Ordinance, the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), shall have effect as if it had been amended as specified in sections 3 to 5.

3. Amendment of section 3. — In section 3 of the principal Act, after sub-section (3A), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely: —

‘(3B) Where any person is required by an order made with reference to clause (f) of sub-section (2) to sell any grade or variety of foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils to the Central Government or a State Government or to an officer or agent of such Government and either no notification in respect of such foodgrains, edible oils seeds or edible oils has been issued under sub-section (3A) or any such notification having been issued has ceased to remain in force by efflux of time, then, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), there shall be paid to that person such price for the foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils as may be specified in that order having regard to —

- (i) the controlled price, if any, fixed under this section or by or under any other law for the time being in force for such grade or variety of foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils; and
- (ii) the price for such grade or variety of foodgrains, edible oil seeds or edible oils prevailing or likely to prevail during the post-harvest period in the area to which that order applies.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this sub-section, «post-harvest period» in relation to any area means a period of three months beginning from the last day of the fortnight during which harvesting operations normally commence’.

4. Insertion of new sections 6A to 6D. — After section 6 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely: —

“6A. Where any foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils are seized in pursuance of an order made under section 3 in relation thereto, they may be produced, without any unreasonable delay, before the Collector of the district or the Presidency town in which such foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils are seized and whether or not a prosecution is instituted for the contravention of such order, the Collector, if satisfied that there has been a contravention of the order, may order confiscation of the foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils.

6B. Issue of show cause notice before confiscation of foodgrains, etc. — No order confiscating any foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils shall be made section 6A unless the owner of such articles or the person from whom they are seized —

(a) is given a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which it is proposed to confiscate the article;

(b) is given an opportunity of making a representation in writing within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice against the grounds of confiscation; and

(c) is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter;

Provided that the notice referred to in clause (a) or the representation referred to in clause (b) may, at the request of the person concerned, be oral.

6C. Appeal. — (1) Any person aggrieved by an order of confiscation under section 6A may, within one month from the date of the communication to him of such order, appeal to the State Government concerned and the State Government may, after giving an opportunity to the appellant to be heard, pass such order as it may think fit, confirming, modifying or annulling the order appealed against.

(2) Where an order under section 6A is modified or annulled by the State Government, or where in a prosecution instituted for the contravention of the order in respect of which an order of confiscation has been made under section 6A, the person concerned is acquitted, and in either case it is not possible for any reason to return the foodgrains or edible oilseeds or edible oils seized, such person shall be paid the price therefore as if the foodgrains, edible oilseeds or edible oils, as the case may be, had been sold to the Government; and such price shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3B) of section 3.

6D. Award of confiscation not to interfere with other punishments. — The award of any confiscation under this Act by the Collector shall not prevent the infliction of any punishment to which the person affected thereby is liable under this Act”.

5. Amendment of section 7. — In section 7 of the principal Act, in clause (b) sub-section (1), —

(a) in the opening paragraph, after the words «seem fit», the words «including, in the case of an order relating to foodgrains, any packages, coverings or receptacles in which they are found and any animal, vehicle, vessel or other conveyance used in carrying foodgrains» shall be inserted;

(b) in the proviso, after the words «any part of the property», the words «or any packages, coverings or receptacles or any animal, vehicles, vessel or other conveyance» shall be inserted.
